

February 15, 2022

To the attention of foreign students!

In response to the requests of the Foreign Embassies in Ukraine University informs that it has no objections to the possible temporary departure of foreign students to the homeland, taking into account the online education and volatile situation in Ukraine for the period of stabilization of the situation and the end of the pandemic wave.

University will provide additional information about the resumption of the education offline.