

THE LIST OF SURGICAL DENTISTRY PRACTICAL SKILLS
FOR STUDENTS OF 5-th COURSE OF DENTAL FACULTY
X semester

1. Be able to take the history and conduct the clinical inspection of patient, correctly to design case history, set a diagnosis and appoint treatment.
2. Be able to conduct any type of the local anaesthetizing in a maxillofacial area.
3. To conduct the typical operation of tooth extraction.
4. To conduct the atypical tooth extraction operation.
5. Independently to conduct dissection at periostitis and periodontal abscess.
6. Be able to stop bleeding after tooth extraction.
7. To set a diagnosis and treat the patient with alveolitis and alveoloneuritis.
8. Be able to treat a sharp alveolar edge.
9. To inspect a patient with a haematoma, contracture and conduct the treatment.
10. Inspect a patient with pericoronitis, diagnosis and treat the patient (dissection of mucous membrane, removal of it or tooth).
11. Inspect a patient with ansinusitis, to set a diagnosis and to appoint the treatment.
12. To set a diagnosis and treat the patient with oral antrum.
13. Be able to inspect the patient with salivary glands diseases.
14. Be able to conduct the bougienage of salivary gland duct.
15. Be able to inspect a patient with a phlegmon, to set a diagnosis and to appoint the treatment.
16. To inspect a patient with a tumor, to set a diagnosis and to appoint the treatment.
17. Be able to conduct aspiration biopsy or to take material for cytological or histological research.
18. To inspect a patient with the trauma of maxillofacial area, to set a diagnosis, and to appoint the treatment.
19. Be able to conduct the surgical debridement of the wound.
20. To conduct temporary immobilization of lower and upper jaws fragments.
21. Be able to conduct the correction of tooth splints.
22. Be able to conduct a jaw splintage as one of the methods of temporary immobilization.
23. To inspect a patient with the dislocation of lower jaw and be able to treat it.
24. The first aid for patient with syncope, collapse, shock.
25. The first aid for patient with Quincke's edema, anaphylactic shock.
26. Be able to conduct artificial respiration and indirect massage of heart.