

Instructions for Clinical situational task (case) on pediatric infectious diseases

Objective:

1. To be able to formulate the diagnosis the most common infectious diseases in children;
2. To be able to interpret the received clinical and laboratory results, taking into account anatomical and physiological features and age standards;
3. Be able to determine different clinical variants and complications during the most common infectious diseases of childhood, as well as to diagnose conditions that life threaten for the child;
4. Treatment (drug, single dose, multiplicity of administration, duration of treatment);
5. To provide emergency assistance in major emergency situations.

List of themes for OSKI

1. Scarlet fever
2. Pertussis (Whooping cough)
3. Infectious mononucleosis
4. Salmonellosis
5. Varicella (Chicken pox)
6. Diphtheria
7. ARVI. Croup syndrome.
8. Meningococcal infectious
9. Parotitis
10. Measles
11. Poliomyelitis