

EDUCATION

The department provides training for the 2nd and 3rd year medical students of the medical faculty #2 and is also involved in the postgraduate education of the interns of the 1st and 2nd year getting specialization in “general practice – family medicine” or “internal medicine”.

The subjects “Propedeutics of internal medicine” and “Nursing” are being taught to the 3rd year medical students, while the subjects “Patient’s Care (practice)” and elective course “Deontology in medicine” – to the 2nd year medical students.

Nine tutors are involved into the educational activities including one professor, three associate professors, five assistant professors.

The clinical training at the department takes place at the Lviv Railway Clinical Hospital (<http://railway.lviv.ua/social/health/>), with the involvement of the 1st and 2nd therapeutic departments, endocrinology department, cardiology department and myocardial infarction department (215 hospital beds in total).